Sgt. W. Randall Killed in Action Sept. 12 in Italy

Son of George Randalls, Hy. 173, Had Been in Service Two Years

Official confirmation of the death of Staff Sergeant Willard Randall, 23, in action Sept. 12 in Italy, has been received by members of his family.

Sgt. Randall was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Randall, Highway 173, a grandson of Mrs. Mary Mann, and a nephew of Robert Mann, Antioch grocer.

His wife, Dorothy, resides on Charleston road, Waukegan. An aunt, Mrs. Clair Harder, also lives in Waukegan.

Sgt. Randall had entered the service Sept. 7, 1942. He was graduated from Antioch Township High school in 1939.

At the time he entered the service he was in the employ of the Snow White laundry. He had been overseas since March.

A few days ago his parents had received a letter from one of his buddies who said that Sgt. Randall had been wounded on the battlefield, but not to worry about him.

Contributions to Antioch township's War Fund campaign may be made at either of the local banks or to William A. Rosing, township chairman, at his home Sept. 22.

Urging whole-hearted support for the war fund, Rosing calls attention to a letter recently received at National War Fund headquarters from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

"All Americans know it is a privilege to contribute to the national and community war funds in this year of liberation. Complementing our military campaigns, the services which flow from these funds reach out to friends and neighbors at home and abroad and to the oppressed peoples of the world."

In addition to the 15,000 volunteer workers in each of the 184 communities of the "suburban" area in Cook, Lake and Du Page counties, War Fund Campaign headquarters reports that thousands of children are beginning to take an active part in the campaign.

R. E. Clabaugh, Arlington Heights superintendent of schools and former principal of Antioch Grade school, will speak on "Linking Schools with Life."

A brief talk will be given by W. C. Petty, Antioch, Lake county superintendent.

Mrs. William Schmalfuss, Zion, is president of the county council and Mrs. William Cassel, Libertyville, secretary.

Commission Company Buys 2 Million Worth in Illinois

Illinois growers and shippers of fresh fruits and vegetables received $2,248,520 in a single year for produce marketed through the Atlantic Commission company, produce-buying affiliate of the A. & P. Food stores.

"Cooperation with growers in moving peak-season surpluses, local participation in a strong national home-canning program during which 30 million instruction leaflets were distributed directly to consumers, together with special store displays and advertising campaigns, all helped achieve the total," reported Harvey A. Baum, general manager of the commission company.

Purchases made principally through the company's field-buying offices at Centralia, Carbondale and Anna, included the equivalent of 2,086 carloads of apples, beans, cucumbers, grapes, peaches, potatoes, strawberries, watermelons, and miscellaneous produce, said Baum.

Firemen Re-elect All Officers at Meeting

Inspections of schools and business houses are being carried out by the department this week as part of the state-wide Fire Prevention observance, Oct. 8-14.

A survey of possible fire hazards about the village is also being carried out.

"I've gotten another promotion which brings me up to AMM 1/c, which does help some."

"Am hoping to spend a few days in Antioch later on."

It takes a while for the News to catch up with John Blackman, MoMM 1/c, but it finally gets there—

"It usually takes quite a while for me to get it. Today I received most of it back as far as March. But just the same, it's a news."

"I have been looking forward to meeting some of the fellows from Antioch, but as there aren't many in submarines, I will probably keep on looking."

"There isn't much I can say about our platoon—the censors seem to like to cut that sort of stuff up. After every patrol, which is something like two months, we climb out of our hole and spend two weeks at the best hotel or barracks or whatever it may be, according to where we are."

"Thanking you again for sending the News to me, I hope to be back in Antioch inside of a year."

The Observer

We get used to tales of apple blossoms and violets appearing at such untimely seasons as the present one, and have come to dismiss them pretty much as interesting, true and so what?—but when a friend of ours like Mrs. John Sibley brings in some real apple blossoms, complete with that genuine spring fragrance—well, then we do begin to wonder if nature didn't get her seasons a little bit scrambled. Anyway, that little pink blossom that's been in our front window since Wed. a. m. is a real one, and no fooling.

Mr. and Mrs. John Oftedahl are happy to report the return of the pet raccoon belonging to their son, Everett, AOM 3/c. The coon, which had vanished from its cage in the rear of the Froese Sno plant, was recaptured by Antioch Grade school children who discovered it in a tree on the school grounds.

When a letter from him was received by friends here this week.

Newlin said that he had not received letters or other mail for some time, and sent his new APO number, 403, New York, in the hope that he would soon be hearing from his Antioch acquaintances.

He had a pleasant surprise recently, he observed, when someone came up behind him and tapped him on the shoulder. It was his brother, who had been stationed at Camp McCoy, Wis., when he had last heard from him. His brother had been wounded on D-Day, but had recovered, Virgil said.

Capt. A. N. Berke (medical corps) has been transferred to Ashford General hospital, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., from Camp Forrest, Tenn.

S/Sgt. Chester B. Runyard is at Vaughn General hospital (ward 6), Hines, Ill.

Cpl. Gordon Good, "somewhere in France," sends word that he is in good health.

Sgt. Russell W. Nickerson, formerly at Camp Butler, N. C., may now be addressed via New York APO 17128.

Cpl. Al Lehmann, Chicago, who has been on furlough since Sept. 28, after 29 months of service overseas, arrived here Wednesday for a two days' visit with his aunt, Mrs. Joseph Phachay. Cpl. Lehmann served in the Alaskan theater of operations, including Dutch Harbor.

Russell E. Hunter, Ch/Ph, now stationed at the Naval hospital at Camp Farragut, Ida., and Mrs. Hunter made a visit with relatives here en route on the trip there from Washington, D. C.

T/Sgt. William Gerber writes from somewhere in France that the people there are lucky to have wooden shoes to wear. Some haven't seen shoes of any description for a long time, he observes.

Pvt. J. G. Schaefer is now at Ft. Meyers, Fla. He was formerly stationed at Keesler field, Miss.

T/5 Donald H. Elfering may now be addressed at APO 282, New York. He was previously stationed at Camp Berkeley, Texas.

DON'T TAKE THE WHOLE PIE By COLLIER

Conservation Work is Described for P. T. A.

Department's Program is Important to Agriculture, Osborne States

The many-sided program of conservation now being carried on in Illinois, in co-operation with farmers' and sportsmen's organizations, schools, young people's groups and other groups and clubs, was interestingly outlined by Livingston Osborne, state conservation director, in a talk given before the Antioch Parent-Teacher association Monday evening.

In his talk, which members of the Lions club and other organizations interested in conservation had been invited to attend, Osborne stated that efforts are being made to preserve the natural fertility of the soil, to raise the water table, encourage the planting of trees on ground not suited for farming purposes, and increase the supply of fish and game.

The conservation department is particularly interested in preserving the agricultural resources of the state, Osborne mentioned, citing instances where naturally fertile soil had been depleted through over-cropping, and relating how the lowered water table has resulted in many farm wells running dry, so that farmers were obliged to haul water from a distance for their stock. The latter condition was made worse in the southern part of the state this past summer, he observed, because the pollution of streams made that water unfit for livestock to drink.

The water condition has been aggravated in some communities, also, he pointed out, by the dumping of industrial waste resulting from the manufacture of war products.

A little care, thought and money devoted to conservation will bring ample dividends to residents of Illinois, as it already has in Wisconsin and Minnesota, he emphasized.

The program of the Conservation school here in educating conservation department workers and young people was also described by Osborne, who told something of its aims and accomplishments.

Motion pictures shown by Orlando Graef were used to illustrate the talk, which was followed with the serving of refreshments.

S/SGT. OTTO PALASKE IS HOME ON VISIT

S/Sgt. Otto P. Palaske arrived in Antioch last Friday after an absence of nearly a year, spent in overseas service in the European theater of action, including Italy, Corsica and France.

Before coming to Antioch, he spent five days in New York visiting his sister, Mrs. Edward Podboy, the former Miss Alice Palaske, whose husband is a warrant officer in the merchant marine service.

He was accompanied on the trip from New York to Antioch by his mother, Mrs. Julia Palaske, who had spent the past seven weeks with Mrs. Podboy and daughter, Judy Ann, who was born Aug. 18. Sgt. Palaske's arrival in New York at that time was a surprise to his family.

Sgt. Leonard Schaffner, formerly at Fort Custer, Mich., is now at Camp Reynolds, Pa.

Cpl. Marvin K. Hunt has been transferred to a different company and regiment at Camp Joseph T. Robinson, Ark.

Helen Weber, 44, Stricken Suddenly at Indian Point

Dies Immediately Following Fall at Summer Cottage Sunday Morning

Funeral services were held today in Chicago for Mrs. Helen Weber, 44, who was found dying at the foot of a step ladder at her home on Indian Point Sunday morning.

Mrs. Weber was discovered by her husband, whom she had been assisting in painting the window frames of their cottage.

He summoned the Antioch Rescue squad, which received the call at 10:53 o'clock and immediately put in a call for a physician, to which Dr. R. D. Williams responded.

Her husband reported that she still appeared to be breathing when he found her, and carried her into the cottage, but she was pronounced dead by Dr. Williams when he arrived.

No Witness to Accident

There were no witnesses present at the time she fell, and her husband, who had been working on another side of the building, was unaware of what had happened until he heard her moan.

It was at first reported that Mrs. Weber, who had apparently struck her head in falling, had sustained a broken neck. However, at a coroner's inquest held Monday evening in the Strang Funeral home, to which the body had been removed, the opinion was given by Dr. A. D. Meyer, coroner's physician, that she may have suffered a heart attack.

The couple resided on West McLean avenue, Chicago, during the winter months, but had been spending the summer season at Grass Lake. They have no children.

Mrs. Weber was born Nov. 15, 1899, at Joliet, Ill.

Why Discharge Experienced Men?

The County Treasurers' Association of Illinois and the Illinois Sheriffs' association are both actively campaigning to amend that part of the state constitution which limits the tenure of county treasurers and sheriffs to one term of office.

The amendment to be submitted to the voters at the November election would give these officials the right to become candidates to succeed themselves.

Advocates of the proposed amendment point out that the restrictive limitations had their origin in an era when conditions were somewhat different from those of the present time.

Bonding of public officers and improved systems of auditing public funds and their administration have brought about a changed situation, they observe.

"We can understand why those provisions were placed in our (state) constitution at that time," says Victor L. Schlaeger, treasurer of Cook county and president of the Illinois Treasurers' association.

"We lacked facilities for safeguarding public funds, and we also lacked the legal machinery for pursuing, capturing and punishing embezzlers. Until 50 years ago, an American thief was safe in Canada because we had no extradition treaty."

The one-term limitation brings about the dismissal of many capable officers just when they have reached their peak of efficiency, Schlaeger contends.

It must be conceded that the proponents of the amendment have some valid arguments there. Such continuity of administration as there has been in sheriff's departments and treasurers' departments of the state has generally been achieved through the continuous service of trained and experienced deputies.

The prospect of having to "break in" a new chief every four years, however, cannot have lightened the duties of these workers, at best.

Passing the amendment would not, of course, insure continuity of tenure on the part of incumbents, since there is always the chance that a candidate may be repudiated at the polls. It would, however, make it possible for an efficient officeholder to continue in service for more than a single term.

That these facts are generally recognized may be seen by noting the number of states in the Union that no longer limit treasurers or deputies to one term. All but seven now permit these officers to succeed themselves, and of the seven, two, Illinois and Pennsylvania, are at present considering removal of these restrictions.

His Last Campaign

The untimely death of Wendell L. Willkie early Sunday morning removed from the American political scene one of the most colorful figures that have appeared upon it in many years.

His departure, while he was apparently at the height of his powers, was as startling as his abrupt entry into public life as Republican presidential candidate in 1940.

Although his political career was marked by defeats, he seemed, curiously, to gain in political stature through them.

Although not a candidate, he was expected to have considerable influence in the present campaign. Even as news came of his death early Sunday morning in a New York hospital, magazine articles and his book, "One World," continued to spread to the world his forward looking views on human relationships.

The shock of his death was the greater in that Willkie was apparently the personification of strength and energy.

Throughout the nation this week, leaders are paying tribute to his honesty, fearlessness and sincerity. Curiously, even those who disagreed most with his announced policies are united with his friends in stating that in his death this country, and perhaps the world, has sustained a genuine loss.

Death has, in truth, revealed his true stature, not only as a politician, but as a true American.

THE CRYSTAL BALL

"In order to preserve their independence the people must not let our rulers lead them with perpetual debt."

"We must make our choice between economy and liberty, or profusion and servitude. . . . A departure from principle in one instance becomes a precedent for a second; that second for a third; and so on, till the bulk of the society is reduced to be mere automatons of misery. . . . The fore horse of this frightful team is public debt. Taxation follows that, and in its train wretchedness and oppression. . . ."

So wrote Thomas Jefferson in a letter to Samuel Kerchival in 1816.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"The war sure has made a lot of changes in this old world of ours, hasn't it, Judge?"

"Plenty of them, John. One that few people realize is that the rubber producing center of the world is now right here in the United States.

"When the Japs conquered the big natural rubber producing centers of the world they thought they had us licked. But in two short years, thanks to American industry, we are now producing synthetic rubber enough to supply all our military and essential civilian needs.

"Our rubber experts knew how to make it but the problem was to get the huge amounts of industrial alcohol needed. Almost overnight the country's beverage distillers stopped making whiskey and converted 100% to the production of this vital ingredient. A high government official said recently this was "...an almost unparalleled example of the overnight conversion of an entire industry from peace to war."

"Come to think of it, Judge, it was a mighty fortunate thing the beverage distilling industry was in existence, wasn't it?"

Telephone equipment is being made here at home for fighting use overseas; in factories that in peacetime supply America's civilian telephone needs.

That is why there is now a shortage — and why you may have been asked to wait your turn for home telephone service.

Keep Cool With Shrimp Salad in Aspic
(See Recipes Below)

Bit of Spice

"I've saved many a meal just by serving it with a good relish," home-makers often tell me.

This is the season to put up those small, precious jars of sweetness and spice to go with meat-thrifty meals. There needn't be many if your sugar rations are low, but do fit a few of them in your canning budget and classify them as morale builders.

Pickles, chutneys, catsups, preserves and relishes add that bit of something special to the meal. They're easy to put up because the sugar, spices and vinegar in them act as preservatives.

First on the list is a tasty blueberry relish that goes with mild-flavored meats like lamb or veal.

*Blueberry Relish.

4 cups blueberries (prepared)
7 cups sugar
1/2 cup vinegar
1/2 bottle fruit pectin

To prepare blueberries, crush thoroughly or grind 1 1/2 quarts fully ripe, cultivated blueberries. Add 1/4 to 1 teaspoon cinnamon, cloves, allspice or any desired combination of spices.

Measure sugar, prepared blueberries and vinegar into a large kettle. Mix well and bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in bottled fruit pectin. Skim; pour quickly. Paraffin hot relish at once.

Chili sauce has carried a high point value since rationing came into effect. It would be a good idea to put it up at home so as to save points for other canned food.

Chili Sauce.

1 gallon tomatoes
2 cups onions
2 cups sweet red pepper
1 pod hot red pepper
1 cup sugar
3 tablespoons salt
1 tablespoon mustard seed
1 tablespoon celery seed
3 tablespoons mixed spices
2 1/2 cups vinegar

Skin tomatoes before chopping. Chop all vegetables before measuring. The mixed spices in a bag.

Mix all ingredients except spice bag and vinegar. Add spice bag after mixture has boiled 30 minutes. Cook until very thick, then add vinegar and boil until there seems to be no more "free" liquid. Taste and add more seasoning, if necessary. Pour, while boiling hot, into hot, sterile jars and seal at once.

Tomato Ketchup.

1 peck tomatoes
3 sweet red peppers
1 pod hot red pepper
4 tablespoons salt
2 cups sugar
1 tablespoon celery seed
2 teaspoons mustard seed
1 tablespoon whole allspice
2 sticks cinnamon
3 cups vinegar

Put tomatoes, peppers and pod in a large kettle. Add salt, sugar, celery seed, mustard seed, allspice, cinnamon and vinegar. Boil over fire 1 hour. Strain through a cloth. Boil again 1 hour. Pack into hot, sterile jars and seal at once.

*Recipe Given

Wash and chop tomatoes and peppers. Simmer until soft. Press through a fine sieve. Cook rapidly until reduced to about one-half. Add sugar, salt and spices (tied in bag) and boil until thick. Add vinegar about 5 minutes before removing from fire. Pour into hot, sterile jars and seal at once.

Two of the most popular types of pickles get a place in today's column. You'll like putting up both for variety's sake.

Bread and Butter Pickles.

3 quarts sliced cucumbers
3 onions
1/2 cup salt
1 cup vinegar
1 cup water
3 cups brown sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon ginger
2 tablespoons mustard seed
1 teaspoon turmeric
1/2 tablespoon celery seed
1 pod hot red pepper
1 piece horseradish

Mix cucumbers, onions (sliced) and salt. Let stand 5 hours. Drain. Boil vinegar, water, salt, sugar and seasonings 3 minutes. Add cucumbers and onions and simmer 10 to 20 minutes. Do not boil. Pack into hot, sterile jars and seal at once.

Dill Pickles.

35 to 40 fresh cucumbers
2 tablespoons mixed spices
1/2 pound dill
2 cups salt
2 gallons water
2 cups vinegar

Wash and dry cucumbers. Put a layer of dill and 1/2 of the spices in a stone jar. Add the cucumbers.

Put the remaining spices and dill on top of the cucumbers. Boil salt, water and vinegar 2 minutes. Cool to room temperature and pour over cucumbers. Cover with a plate weighted down to hold the cucumbers in the brine. Keep at an even temperature (80 to 85 degrees). Remove skum each day. The pickles are ready for canning when they are crisp, uniform in color and well-flavored with dill. This usually requires 2 to 4 weeks. Pack the cured pickles into hot jars, cover with hot brine and seal at once. If the pickles are to be stored a long time, process them in water bath for 15 minutes at a simmering temperature.

If you like fruity pickles, you'll like this one:

Peach Pickles.

1 gallon peaches
7 cups sugar
1 piece ginger root
2 sticks cinnamon
1 tablespoon whole allspice
1 teaspoon whole cloves
2 cups water
3 cups vinegar

Clingstone peaches are best for pickling, although freestone may be used. Pare hard-ripe fruit. Leave whole. Boil 3 cups sugar, the spices (tied in a bag) and vinegar for 3 minutes. Add 10 to 12 peaches at a time. Simmer until they are tender. Let stand in syrup 12 to 24 hours. Pack peaches into hot jars. Add remaining sugar to syrup and cook to desired thickness. Pour over peaches. Process 5 minutes in hot water bath.

Flier Crashes; Dragged Into Sky by Navy Blimp

SAN DIEGO, CALIF.—The 11th naval district revealed a story of heroism at sea which culminated in the dramatic rescue of a marine corps flier from heavy waves by the crew of a navy blimp hovering overhead.

For more than three hours Capt. Frank B. Baldwin of Lapeer, Mich., floated in mountainous seas after his plane collided in midair with another marine plane off Santa Barbara, Calif., and he was forced to parachute into the ocean.

Lieut. E. R. Haynes of Athens, Ga., pilot of the other plane, was listed as missing.

A Catalina flying boat was kept from landing by the huge waves.

Despite a 35-mile-an-hour wind, the blimp, commanded by Lieut. (jg) Peter I. Culbertson of Santa Ana, Calif., former University of Minnesota wrestling star, hovered over the downed pilot. "A special rescue harness was lowered.

Captain Baldwin managed to don the apparatus and was pulled into the blimp.

Evicted So Fast SheLeft Teeth Behind

CHICAGO.—When Frank Tardio, 45, evicted his wife, Ruby, 34, from their home last August, he didn't even give her time to get her upper plate from the dresser drawer, she told Judge Robert J. Dunne. The judge granted her permission to retrieve the teeth from the dresser, now in storage.

Quit Battle for Big O'Dea EstateClaimants Agree to Waive Right to Appeal.

LOS ANGELES.—Six years of litigation over the $4,000,000 estate of the late Michael Francis O'Dea became a closed incident with the announcement of attorneys here that unsuccessful claimants had agreed to waive their right to appeal. Counsel for winning litigants said the losers will be reimbursed for the share they paid for transcripts of the case, one of the longest American trials on record, with five judges successively presiding.

Originally 485 persons made claims as heirs. All but 40 had been eliminated when the jury last March awarded the estate to three first cousins in Ireland.

Claimants ruled out by the jury included Lucy Fay Bales, one-time wienerswurst packer who claimed to be a daughter of O'Dea by his asserted marriage to a dancer, Mary Crane.

Another claimant was Mrs. Pansy Dunham, 68, of Toronto, Ont., Canada. A will giving her half of O'Dea's estate was filed in court in Los Angeles. Attorneys gave this account of the will: At the age of 20, Mrs. Dunham, then Miss Pansy Bevens, met O'Dea while he was on a business trip to Grand Rapids, Mich.

She rejected a proposal of marriage, but he wrote a will leaving her half of his property. Three years later she married and with her husband moved to Toronto. When Mrs. Dunham saw an account of the death of O'Dea and the search for heirs, she got out the will.

The three cousins awarded the estate are Mrs. Mary Lynch McCarthy, 80, of Limerick, Mrs. Bridget Lynch Wolfe, 82, of O'Brien's Bridge, County Clare, and James Lynch, 78, of Six Mile Bridge, County Clare, all of Ireland.

Since the original award was made, James Lynch has died; so that his share will go to his four sons.

Young British Grab Off U. S. Army Surplus Goods

LONDON. — The U. S. army's "spring cleaning" just before D-day proved a field day for British civilians, mainly children, said an officer writing in the Journal of the National Association of Local Government.

He described the volume of discarded goods as "colossal." There were wooden boxes of all sizes, lifebelts, helmets, respirators, boots and clothing of every description. As soon as word passed around of this rich hoard, members of the public snarling under our English rationing launched an offensive in strength. As each lorry tipped its load they attacked.

The article said one official in charge of a garbage dump was "brushed helplessly aside by a stream of barrows and four-wheelers of all kinds, manned mostly by children armed with helmets, lifebelts, etc., far into the night. Tidiness and wartime economy of food scraps and clothing could not be said to be American virtues."

Army Takes Time Out toPick Name for a Baby

SECOND ARMY FIELD HEADQUARTERS IN TENNESSEE. — What are maneuvers compared to the importance of getting the right name for a new offspring?

That's what one mother thought recently. When a daughter was born to a captain's wife in Alabama, she immediately notified the adjutant general's office at Second Army headquarters and asked that her husband, on maneuvers, be informed. She also insisted that he be asked what he thought of the name, "Mary Ann," for his daughter.

The mother explained she didn't want to name the child without the concurrence of her husband.

P.S.—The adjutant general's office obliged.

Gives Veteran's Watch To Red Fighting Man

FAYETTE, ALA.—Wagoner Sims lost his life on a battlefield in France 26 years ago, but soon his watch will be carried by a Russian fighting man on another battlefield on the other side of Europe.

The gold pocket watch was received by Russian War Relief, Inc., which has collected 21,000 watches for Russian doctors, nurses and guerrilla soldiers in the last year.

"This watch will, I hope, aid some brave Russian fighting man," the donor, Margaret S. Campbell of Fayette, Ala., wrote. "It is contributed in memory of a fine young American who gave his life in World War I."

"How's your invasion going?"

HIS seems to be doing all right.

On June 6th, this young fellow tackled the biggest, toughest, most audacious military venture of all time—and he's pulling it off.

But how's the invasion going?

We've got one on our hands—just as much as any soldier. Don't think for a minute that every one of us here hasn't a personal share in the job of breaking into Hitler's Europe and hattering down the Wehrmacht.

There's not much glory goes with our part of the job. Not much pain or danger, either. Our part is to pay—to pay with cash instead of blood.

Our part is to buy War Bonds.

But if you have the idea that our part isn't important—that the little bit that you personally can do—that the Bonds you buy don't really matter very much—get it out of your head.

The supreme military effort of the war must be matched by a supreme financial effort here. That means every man and woman in this country has got to put more money into Bonds—often—than ever before in this whole conflict!

Make no mistake—we've got to get that money up, now!

If you want to know how the Invasion's going

—don't expect to get the whole story from your paper. Look at your own Bond buying—that's the big part of the answer!

And here are 5 more reasons for buying Extra War Bonds!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world.
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the War.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

HOUSEHOLD MEMOS... by Lynn Chambers

Wise Cooks Use Their Ingenuity When Points Are Low

...lamb makes a pretty natural centerpiece, then green pepper and red skinned apple slices.

Menus don't have to go begging just because ration points have been restored to a great many cuts of meat. In fact, this is the time when all good cooks will put forth all the ingenuity and inspiration they can stir up.

Less expensive cuts will give every bit the same nutrition as the most expensive ones, and with long, moist heat cooking they can be made just as palatable.

If you do decide to splurge on a roast or a ham occasionally, use the leftovers up so cleverly that the family will get a real palate thrill from them. It can be done!

And with that in mind, we're going right into our recipe round-up for today. First, the less expensive cuts come in for their share of attention with this Beef En Casserole:

Beef En Casserole.

(Serves 6)

- 1 1/2 pounds beef (neck, flank or shank), cut into inch cubes
 - 3 strips of bacon
 - 1 clove garlic, peeled
 - 1 cup boiling water
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
 - 2 whole cloves
 - 1 1/2 cups diced carrots
 - 6 peeled small onions
- Flour beef cubes. Cook bacon in heavy skillet until brown but not crisp. Remove. Add garlic to bacon fat and brown beef cubes on all sides. Remove garlic. Add water and seasonings. Heat to boiling. Turn into baking dish, adding vegetables and bacon (cut into inch pieces). Cover and bake in a slow (300-degree) oven for 2 to 2 1/2 hours.

Veal-Ham Loaf.

(Serves 6)

- 1 1/2 pounds ground veal
 - 1 cup ground ham
 - 2 eggs
 - 1 cup fine bread crumbs
 - Grated rind 1/4 lemon
 - 1 cup milk
 - 1 tablespoon butter, melted
 - 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- Mix all ingredients with a fork and shape into loaf. Place in loaf pan and pour 1/2 cup tomato juice over top. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 1 1/2 hours.

Veal Schnitzel.

(Serves 6)

- 2 pounds veal steak (1/2-inch thick)
 - Seasoning
 - 1 cup fine crumbs
 - 1 egg
 - 1 tablespoon water
 - 4 tablespoons lard or bacon drippings
 - 1 lemon
 - 1 tablespoon sour
- Pound veal to flatten out into thin

Lynn Says

This is the fruit season: Fresh fruit will easily solve the dessert problem. Here are ways to do delightful things to fresh fruits:

Fill melon rings with mint sherbet.

Peel bananas, sprinkle with lemon juice, cover with honey and bake until tender. They're good with cream.

Marinate cantaloupe balls in grapefruit juice and serve well chilled.

Apricot ice goes with grapefruit sections, orange slices and freshly sliced apricots.

Serve applesauce hot with marshmallows folded in just before dishing up.

Apple pie is the better made with a little orange juice and rind for flavor.

Lynn Chambers' Point-Saving Menu

- Fried Chicken
- Mashed Potatoes - Cream Gravy
- Green Beans
- Lettuce and Tomato Salad
- Fresh Blackberry Pie

pieces. Season. Cut into servings. Roll in beaten egg mixed with water, then in fine crumbs. Brown in hot fat until well browned. Add 1/4 cup water. Cover and cook slowly 30 to 35 minutes. Fold over in half when ready to serve with sliced lemon, hard-cooked eggs or pimiento olives as a garnish. Sour cream may be added to the fat in the pan to make a sauce for the schnitzel.

Only a little meat is needed in the next two recipes for that meaty flavor:

Chicken-Corn Pudding.

(Serves 4 to 6)

- 8 slices bread
- 1 can whole kernel corn
- 1/2 cup chopped chicken
- 3 eggs
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon paprika
- 2 1/2 cups milk

Arrange alternate layers of bread slices, corn and chicken in a greased casserole. Beat eggs, add salt, pepper, paprika and milk. Pour into casserole, adding more milk if necessary to cover mixture. Bake in a moderate (350-degree) oven 1 hour.

Tomato-Bacon Scallops.

(Serves 5)

- 2 1/2 cups cooked or canned tomatoes
- 1 cup peas, cooked or canned
- 8 slices bacon
- 2 tablespoons onion, chopped
- 1 cup diced celery
- 2 cups soft bread crumbs
- Salt and pepper

Combine tomatoes with drained peas. Fry bacon slowly until crisp. Drain on absorbent paper; crumble. Cook onion and celery in 1 tablespoon bacon fat until lightly browned. Place 1/2 of tomatoes and peas into a greased casserole; top with one half of the bacon. Add onion and celery mixture and crumbs. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Repeat layers. Bake in a hot (400-degree) oven 20 minutes.

A leg of lamb is good eating as a roast and economical if it is served as leftovers in the form of creamed lamb or salad:

Lamb Salad Bowl.

(Serves 6)

- 2 1/2 cups diced cold lamb
- 2 cups diced celery
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 8 slices red apple
- 1 cup mayonnaise
- 1 tablespoon fresh, chopped mint

Pile diced lamb in center of salad bowl. Arrange diced celery in a circle around lamb; repeat, using chopped pepper. Cut apple in half; core and slice cross-wise. Place slices around edge of bowl, peel side up, and extending about 1/4 of an inch above edge of bowl. Serve with mayonnaise to which has been added chopped, fresh mint.

Noodle ring with creamed leftover lamb and peas is another good suggestion for using bits of the leftover roast. The meat is extended with peas and gravy.

Creamed Lamb and Peas.

(Serves 6)

- 3 cups diced, cooked lamb
- 1 medium onion, sliced
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 2 cups leftover gravy
- 1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- Salt and pepper
- 3 green pepper rings, cut in half
- 1/2 cup cooked peas
- Slices of pineapple, if desired

Saute onion in butter until tender, add gravy and seasonings. Add meat and peas and heat through. Serve in noodle ring and garnish with pineapple and green pepper rings.

BURGLAR ALARM

Last July, the Office of Price Administration leased 4,500 square feet of space in a Milwaukee, Wis., office building promising to pay an annual rental of $5,625. In view of the "imperative need" for speed and space, established firms were scattered to the four winds resulting in extensive moving costs. A thousand dollars was spent by the corporation operating the building to install a burglar alarm system. The New Deal bureau never occupied the space and on October 1 it cancelled the lease.
